

ASPEN MAGAZINE

HOME & LIFESTYLE

Courtesy of the Timbers Company

Tuscan Treat: The exterior view of Castello di Casole, in Italy.

INSIDE: WHAT ASPENITES ARE IN BED WITH

PLUS: THE TIMBERS COMPANY OFFERS FRACTIONAL OWNERSHIP IN THE TUSCAN COUNTRYSIDE

ALSO: THE LATEST REAL ESTATE NEWS

Home & Lifestyle

Tranquility: The beautiful Castello di Casole

OWN A PIECE OF TUSCANY

PICTURE YOURSELF IN A GORGEOUS ITALIAN VILLA MADE OF CARRARA MARBLE, MURANO glass, and ancient stone, nestled among the rolling hills and rich Renaissance history of Tuscany. Castello di Casole is the newest rustically posh destination for ultimate rest and relaxation—and now a piece of it can be yours to indulge in through a fractional-ownership opportunity from the Timbers Company of Carbondale and SV Capital of Denver.

Castello di Casole, a private five-star luxury resort, is located on 5,500 pristine acres and combines farmhouse residences, a restored centuries-old castle boutique inn, fine dining, and a lavish world-class spa. Six villas are ready for a May 1 opening, with seven more on the way, and the castle is slated for completion in spring of 2008.

Each villa comes with a personal attendant to cater to all of your cooking, housekeeping, and childcare needs. Fresh flowers, a well-stocked kitchen, and family pictures welcome guests at the beginning of their stay. Ten fractions are available for each villa with a $550,000 price tag, guaranteeing owners one two-week block and two single-week blocks.

“It’s your picture-book Tuscan dream,” says Timbers Company marketing director Amy Thomas. “You wake up in the morning to fog in the hills and castellos dotting the landscape.”

Fractional owners also have the option to trade a week in Tuscany for a week at one of the Timbers Company’s other resorts in Cabo San Lucas, Mexico; Scottsdale, Arizona; St. Thomas, US Virgin Islands—and right here in Snowmass Village. Timbers Company, 963-4626.