

Register for Newsletter

HOT TOPICS

Week of August-2-2006

A major residential resort to be built in St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands, has been granted approval from the USVI Department of Planning and Natural Resources. Along with a number of residences, the 367-acre Preserve at Botany Bay will feature a 66-suite boutique hotel with beach club, spa and dining options. The hotel opens in mid-2008