

THE DENVER POST

business

Colorado business, 1/12

By The Denver Post Staff
Denver Post

Article Last Updated:01/11/2007 08:59:50 PM MST

Starz Entertainment of Doug las County has acquired the exclusive rights to five films from producer Bob Yari, including the critically acclaimed mystery "The Illusionist." The films will be shown on the Starz linear channels as well as on Starz On Demand and Vongo.

RBC Capital Markets announced the completion of its acquisition of Denver-based Daniels & Associates LP. The new business unit will operate under the brand name RBC Daniels. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

Infinity Energy Resources Inc. of Denver has entered into a $50 million revolving credit facility with Amegy Bank NA. The loan agreement provides for an initial borrowing base of $27 million, with an initial two-year term.

Birner Dental Management Services Inc., the Denver-based operator of Perfect Teeth dental practices, announced that it increased its quarterly dividend to 15 cents per share this year.

ProLogis, a Denver-based operator of distribution facilities, has leased 200,000 square feet of industrial space in China to DHL, a provider of delivery and logistics services.

Simtek Corp., a Colorado Springs-based supplier of random-access-memory chips, announced that it has recently filed 10 new patent applications relating to its nvSRAM design, technology and intellectual property. These filings represent the first patent applications to be submitted by the company in nearly five years.

Aurora Water will host a small, local subcontractor business-opportunity fair for the first component of the city's Prairie Waters project Jan. 18. The event will be held from 12:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Radisson Hotel-Denver Southeast, 3200 S. Parker Road.

The Timbers Co. of Carbondale has changed its name to Timbers Resorts, reflecting the company's role as a resort-development company.

Faegre & Benson LLP has received the Outstanding Corporate Commitment Award for 2006 from the Colorado Hispanic Bar Association. The award recognized the Denver- based law firm's exceptional commitment to the Hispanic community and its promotion of diversity in corporate policies and activities.

Micro Business Development has opened an office at Longmont Free University, 505 Main St. Part of the funding for the new location is being paid for by the Longmont Economic Gardening Initiative.

UAP Holding Corp., a Greeley-based distributor of agricultural products, declared a quarterly dividend of 18.75 cents per share, payable March 1 to stockholders of record Feb. 15.

Shea Homes of Highlands Ranch has been named Professional Builder magazine's 2007 Builder of the Year. The honor acknowledges building excellence and a strict code of business ethics.

Holland & Hart of Denver has received the Corporate Member of the Year award from the Alliance of Professional Women for its ongoing support of the group, sponsored events and fundraisers.