

Timbers Resorts Appoints Jesse Geremia Director of Operations

The longtime Timbers professional will oversee operations across the brand's luxury portfolio

Winter Park, Fla. (January 30, 2020) - Timbers Resorts, the leading developer and operator of luxury boutique properties around the globe, announces today the appointment of one of its top professionals, Jesse Geremia, as the company's new Director of Operations. In this role, Jesse will oversee all Operations teams, including General Managers, and will have oversight responsibility for all of our operating assets. Additionally, he will be involved with new Timbers development and acquisitions opportunities as the brand expands its portfolio across the East Coast, Caribbean and Europe.

Jesse Geremia brings over 15 years of experience in luxury hospitality to his new role, including 7 years at multiple Timbers Resorts properties. Prior to this, Jesse served as the General Manager for the opening team of Timbers Kiawah, the company's newest ground-up private residence club development. Before this, he served as the General Manager at Timbers Jupiter and Residence Club Manager at Timbers Bachelor Gulch and The Residences at Kapalua Bay. His dedication to creating luxury experiences for fractional real estate owners began while he worked various positions at The Orchard at Carneros Inn, a property in the Timbers Collection.

"Over the past seven years, Jesse has established himself as an integral team member with his genuine passion for luxury hospitality and exceptional insight," said Greg Spencer, the company's Chief Executive Officer. "We are thrilled to utilize his talents on a larger scale as Timbers continues to expand our portfolio of boutique, luxury resorts and private residence clubs."

Jesse Geremia will be based out of Winter Park, Florida with his wife and two daughters.
